

FIDF Young Leadership hosting pool party

More than 150 young professionals will gather at the Gale South Beach's rooftop pool for the fourth annual Friends of the Israel Defense Forces Young Leadership Miami Division Summer Pool Party at 2 p.m. on Sunday, July 10 in Miami Beach.

The purpose of the event is to support programs for wounded Israeli soldiers and the families of fallen heroes.

The event will include complimentary drinks and a special performance by South Florida native DJ Danny Stern.

"We are honored to have such a passionate and active community in Miami," said Friends of the Israel Defense Forces Young Leadership Miami board member and event co-chair Adam Lipkin. "We have seen our circle grow larger and larger each year. This pool party is an excellent way for our young leaders to show their support for Israel's brave defenders — and to have a great time."

Chairing the event will be Lipkin and Gal Kol. Also attending will be Friends of the Israel Defense

Forces Young Leadership Miami committee members Michelle Ben Ari, Max Baum, Tal Dardashti, Ross Fahrer, Hadas Mizrahi, Jaime Wasser and Edou Zaken.

Tickets to the pool party cost $20 in advance or $25 at the door.

Gale South Beach is located at 1690 Collins Ave. in Miami Beach.

For more information, or to reserve tickets, email Lauren Masuzzo at lauren.masuzzo@fidf.org or call 305-345-8233.

